THE ISLE OF GIGHA HERITAGE TRUST

PERSON SPECIFICATION:

Person Specification:
These are the skills, experience and qualifications required to undertake the role.
Essential	Desirable
- Relevant experience in countryside management - Working knowledge of the Scottish Outdoor Access Code and how it relates to both land managers and land users - Ability to work on their own initiative without day to day supervision - Willingness to learn and be involved in a wide range of activities - Training achievements relating to the purpose of this job and key work areas - Understanding of working with a small community - Excellent interpersonal skills, both verbal and written - Ability to solve problems and effect solutions within a small team environment - Work to high standards of Health and Safety - Be prepared to attend off-the-job training - Have a positive attitude towards learning and training development - Demonstrate a professional, positive, and personable manner - Full clean UK driving licence	- Undergraduate degree in relevant environmental, heritage, tourism/ visitor management or countryside management - Familiar with the safe operation of a strimmer, quad bikes, and other path maintenance machinery - Experience of path building, fencing and other countryside crafts - Delivering grant funded projects - First Aid trained - Experience of developing visitor and marketing strategies - Knowledge of the habitats and wildlife found on the Island or in similar environments - Experience of working with a small community - Competent in the use of IT and Microsoft Office packages (Word, Excel, Outlook) - An understanding of the Gaelic language - Proven track record of delivery against targets